*Professor Wolfgang Hofer
Department of Electrical & Computer Engineering
Faculty of Engineering & Computer Science*

Dear Wolfgang,

Thank you for sharing the wonderful news that you were awarded the 2022 Microwave Career Award by the IEEE Microwave Theory and Techniques Society. I congratulate you on this accomplishment and well-deserved recognition of your exceptional contributions to the field of microwave theory and techniques.

I also appreciate your recognition of the support of members of the university that contributed to a rewarding and successful career. It is a pleasure and an honour to share in your success and to know that we belong to such a supportive community here at UVic.

Congratulations once again on this remarkable achievement.

Yours sincerely,
